

Rene was raised in a great home with loving parents. As Rene was growing up, his parents would foster children. This gave Rene a glimpse into what living with non-biological children & siblings looked like. A few years later, this experience would prove to be extremely beneficial as Rene and his wife got married, had 2 children of their own, and then ended up taking in 2 other children who were a few years older. Rene and his wife would end up adopting these kids. It was quite a journey for them being so young with four kids, two of them being adopted. But they persevered and kept true to their commitment to raising their kids well - and today, they have an incredible family. In this episode, Rene offered some incredible insight on the perspective of adoption. Rene has been a football coach at Westbrook Christian School and is now the Pastor at Ohatchee Church of Christ. He's made a positive impact on hundreds of young people. Rene's episode will inspire every young man who watches it.
