

Tommy Marshall

13

Tommy is a true script flipper. His dad was the town drunk and was abusive to Tommy's mom. Tommy and his sisters lived a tumultuous life as children. When Tommy was in ninth grade, he was called out of class and was instructed to go home and check on his dad. He found his dad lying in a puddle of vomit. After dragging him to the bathroom and helping him stand up, the two had a conversation. Tommy asked his dad, "Why are you doing this to us?" Tommy's story is one of tragedy, grace, and forgiveness. Tommy gave up a career as a country music singer because he didn't want to be away from his wife and daughter. He is now a husband, father, grandfather, and pastor who spends his ministry helping people come out of situations like the one he had to overcome.

Dad, Why are you Destroying Our Family?
