

Most people who know Mike would assume he grew up in a model, traditional family that never had any problems. Mike is a highly respected professional, a role model in the community, a church leader, and a father to four successful children. Mike shocked everyone when he revealed that his father had a serious problem with alcohol that contributed to several violent incidents at home during Mike's childhood. In one instance, Mike even had to threaten his dad to make him stop abusing his mother. As the story continues, in an incredible turn of events, Mike shared that his dad's life was later transformed by Jesus Christ and his dad gave up alcohol altogether. Now today, Mike has raised an incredible family.
